

2.6 Language Line Service Interpreters. The Language Line Service is authorized for use in the juvenile courts whenever interpreting is needed in a juvenile proceeding, and such service is economically more feasible than the hiring of personal interpreters.